WRITING MONDAYS

Writing Mondays is a new program offering a space for SMU’s academic writers to work on their writing projects in the company of a supportive network of colleagues. Writing Mondays will be held twice a month, and FREE coffee will be provided for participants. No lectures or tutoring will be provided –just a quiet space to work in the solidarity of other writers.

Arrive with the project you are working on and your laptop, along with any notes or books you need. This is a great place to work on your doctoral dissertation, a grant proposal, or that pesky manuscript that you need to finish!

Open to SMU graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, and junior faculty. Writers in any discipline are welcome. Participants may come to one, several, or all sessions, but you MUST register for each session via Whoozin, at:
